

Governor Steve Bullock today announced the following appointments.

Future Fisheries Review Panel

- Karin Boyd, Bozeman. Qualification: Private Sector Fisheries Restoration Professional. Boyd is a registered professional geologist.

State Library Commission

- Anne Kish, Twin Bridges. Qualification: Public Representative. Kish is the Librarian and an Assistant Professor at the University of Montana Western.
- Aaron LaFromboise, Browning. Qualification: Public Representative. LaFromboise is a Library Technician at Medicine Spring Library at Blackfeet Community College.
- Bruce Newell, Helena. Qualification: Public Representative. Newell is retired and had served as Director of the Montana State Library.

Board of Plumbers

- Timothy Regan, Miles City. Qualification: Master Plumber. Regan is a licensed Master Plumber and owns and operates Regan Plumbing, Heating and Cooling in Miles City.
- Sean Smith, Butte. Qualification: Journeyman Plumber. Smith is a Journeyman Plumber and serves as the Business Manager and Financial Secretary of Local #41 Plumbers and Pipefitters.

Public Safety Officer Standards and Training Council

- Gina Dahl, Havre. Qualification: County Attorney. Dahl is the Hill County Attorney.

Board of Real Estate Appraisers

- George Simek, Billings. Qualification: Real Estate Appraiser. Simek is an independent fee appraiser.
- Thomas Stevens, Missoula. Qualification: Real Estate Appraiser. Stevens is owner of Stevens & Co. in Missoula, a full service, independent real estate appraisal firm.

Board of Regents of Higher Education

- Mariah Williams, Missoula. Qualification: Student Regent. Williams is a senior at the University of Montana, attending Graduate School in the fall, and has served as Vice President and Senator of the Associated Students of the University of Montana.

Board of Respiratory Care Practitioners

- William Carmichael, Great Falls. Qualification: Respiratory Care Practitioner. Carmichael is the Manager of Respiratory Care at Benefis Health System in Great Falls.

Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education

- Representative Franke Wilmer, Bozeman. Qualification: State Legislator. Wilmer is a state legislator and Professor at Montana State University.

###