

Governor Steve Bullock today announced the following appointments.

Board of Alternative Medicine

- Mary Anne Brown, Great Falls. Qualification: Midwife. Brown is a midwife in Great Falls.

Board of Athletic Trainers

- Dr. John Michelotti, Helena. Qualification: Physician. Dr. Michelotti is a physician with Helena Orthopedic Clinic.

Future Fisheries Review Board

- Alan Johnstone, Wilsall. Qualification: Expertise in commercial agriculture. Johnstone is an agriculture producer and worked with the Upper Shields Watershed Group.
- Jim Stone, Ovando. Qualification: Expertise in irrigated agriculture. Stone is the Chair of the Blackfoot Challenge, and owner of Rolling Stone Ranch.
- Nancy Winslow, Missoula. Qualification: Expertise in mining reclamation techniques. Winslow is an environmental consultant, working on environmental impact assessments and statements.

State Historical Preservation Review Board

- Dr. C. Riley Auge, Missoula. Qualification: History professional, historian. Auge is the Collections Curator for the University of Montana's Anthropological Curation Facility.
- Zane Fulbright, Lewistown. Qualification: History professional, historical researcher. Fulbright is an Archeologist for the Bureau of Land Management.

Statewide Interoperability Governing Board

- Kevin Box, Helena. Qualification: Representative of the Montana Emergency Medical Services Association (MEMSA). Box is the new President of the MEMSA, and is with St. Peter's Ambulance Service.

###